

NEFI President Cota Asks for Industry Relief Before Senate Committee

New England Fuel Institute President Sean Cota (Cota & Cota, Bellows Falls, VT) will address the United States Senate today urging release of all 1.97 million barrels of the Northeast Home Heating Oil Reserves and for Congress and the administration to implement real and substantial reforms to existing law and federal regulation designed to ensure fully transparent, accountable and stable energy futures markets.

View Cota Testimony