

HEDGING COLLEGE

Thorough, Focused, and Interactive Instruction on Hedging

April 21 - 22, 2009
Manchester, NH

Overview

Hedging College is a hands-on course designed to take the mystery out of hedging. We will also be discussing the current banking and credit crises. If you're an oil dealer, or end user, looking to improve the the bottom line, this is the instruction you've been looking for. We cover the critical concepts involved in hedging.

Unlike large seminars, you'll be in a small class-room with an experienced, dedicated instructor. We won't waste time on theoretical situations. This is a practical course focused on real-life examples and answering your questions.
